Il Salviatino
Florence, Italy

The converted 15th-century villa, Il Salviatino, provides the perfect retreat for culture vultures heading to Florence. Located in the foothills of the great city, the hillside summer refuge for great Florentine families, artists, and poets come and gone, fuses Florentine history with art, wellness, and award-winning cuisine at Giacomo al Salviatino. Emerging fresh from renovations, the boutique property offers guests 39 restored suites and a new state-of-the-art spa. Nestled within the original greenhouse in the estate's iconic Italian gardens, the new spa includes a sauna, steam room, heated pool, and an ice bath, along with treatment rooms for a range of holistic and rejuvenating wellness experiences.

La Môme

London, United Kingdom

A true Cannes legend comes to London with the opening of La Môme London. Bringing a touch of French Riviera elegance to Belgravia, French restaurateurs Ugo and Antoine Lecorché have channeled the vibrant energy and timeless style of the iconic Cannes hotspot, La Môme Plage, to The Berkeley in Knightsbridge. Renowned for its fun, stylish and relaxed atmosphere, and the best of Mediterranean cuisine, guests can expect plenty of high-style and joie de vivre at La Môme London, with live music, including a DJ, chanteur, and pianist.
